

6516208373.txt

No law should be allowed that interferes with competition. XM radio is all i listen to because I was sick and tired to commercial radio. Let the NAB learn from this and listen to the people. Their attempt to compete by having laws passed interfering with their competition shows that they just don't understand what the public wants, only what their advertisers want.